THE WAR CRY

Printed for the Salvation Army in Canada West by The Farmer's Advocate, at Winnipeg. Mailbox 200, New West, and London, Ontario, Canada.

Editor's Desk

We present this week the Special Brandon Number of the War Cry. It is fervently hoped that this will be but the beginning of a number of special issues in which various cities of the West will occupy the central place. It is fitting that the first special number should deal with Brandon. This was the Army's second opening West of the Great Lakes, which followed immediately after Winnipeg, the pioneer Corps of the West. Brandon, as our readers will gather, is no mean city. It stands out in many respects as a leader. Amongst its many leading features is The Salvation Army, which is a real, all-alive, well-organized Corps doing valiant service for God.

It is also the Divisional Centre for Salvation Army Field activities for the Province of Manitoba outside of the City of Winnipeg. The Divisional Officers are Staff-Captain and Mrs. Harkitt, photos of whom, together with particulars of their careers, were published in an earlier issue of the Canada West War Cry.

We congratulate our Brandon comrades on the splendid position of usefulness to which their Corps has attained. At this time, also, we extend greetings on behalf of our readers to the Worshipful Mayor George Dinsdale, who, incidentally, we are pleased to observe, is Sergeant-Major of the Corps and Monaster Base player in the Corps' splendid Band, and also to the citizens of Brandon, the Wheat City of the West.

We are delighted to note the result of the vote on the Prohibition question in the Province of New Brunswick. This is particularly cheering just now, and should give direction to the voters of the Western Provinces, who will be called on shortly to decide

Newslets

In the absence of the Commanding Officers of the Winnipeg IX. Corps, their brother, Envoys Johnstone, of T.H.Q., has had charge. On Sunday, July 11, Brigadier Taylor led on, and one soul sought Salvation in the night service.

Envoys Barditt, who accompanied the Citadel Band on its recent successful tour, when relating experiences was warm in his praise of the Band's musical achievements. Referring to the conduct of the men, he said it reflected great credit on the organization.

Several old comrades paid a visit to T.H.Q. recently, among them being Ensign and Mrs. Lewis, and Envoys Aikard, of Canada East.

The momentous question by the ballot whether or not our Lord is again to be blighted by the fearful curse of strong drink.

The most cheering feature of the result is that it is so decisive. The vote was a majority of 21,000 for rejection of the Prohibition Act out of a vote of 41,486, and a majority of approximately 15,000 against the sale of light wine and beer.

New Brunswick is so congratulated on this splendid achievement, which should settle the question for all time.

It is a stinging rebuke to those who glibly claimed that the returned soldiers would demand their drink on their return to Canada. The soldiers who overseas saw too much of the wreck and ruin caused by drink to desire a return in Canada to former conditions.

Chief Secretary's Notes

The General and Party—From the latest advices we learn that the boat on which The General and party are travelling will arrive in Vancouver on Saturday, the 17th inst.—one day late. Needless to say, this will be a great disappointment to the many who expected to hear The General on Friday night.

According to present plans the Commissioner is due to return to Winnipeg on July 29, and a hearty welcome awaits him and his party after their two month tour in the West.

It is with deep regret that we learn of the death of Lieut.-Col. Leo, U.S.A., who had been on furlough in California for the past year.

It is gratifying to know that the change is having a beneficial effect on the health of Brigadier Phillips, who is accompanying the Commissioner on his present tour.

The following changes and appointments take place in the New Social Department at the end of this month: Major Robert Smith, Calgary in Victoria; Commandant Cummins, Victoria to Vancouver; Commandant Allen, Vancouver to Winnipeg; Adjutant Walker, Winnipeg to Victoria; Department to Calgary; Mon's Absent. We wish these dear comrades abundant success in their new appointments.

Many Corps will be included in the change taking place next week. Among them are: Winnipeg, in Calgary 1, Vancouver 1, and Victoria.

Appointments will be given in a later issue.

The issuing of a special number of the War Cry devoted largely to Brandon is a new departure as far as the Western War Cry is concerned. No doubt other Corps and cities will want to have a similar boost. What about your city?

Ensign Lekken has started on an extensive tour, largely in the interests of Property. He will, however, conduct meetings at most Corps visited. We bespeak for him a hearty welcome.

Commissioner McKellean, one of The Army's International Secretaries, will be passing through Canada some time in August. This is the Commissioner's first visit to Canada, and it is hoped he will visit Canada West.

We were delighted to see at T.H.Q. this week some old friends in the persons of Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Chas. Taylor and Hilda. They each are looking the picture of health and delight to be back again in Canada. The Colonel has gone on to Vancouver to meet the General, while Mrs. Taylor and Hilda remain in Winnipeg.

Parties from the Old Land continue to arrive in Winnipeg. Last week the passengers from the ss. Tundela and ss. Nalgamm were met by Commandant H. Harkitt, who informs us that there is every indication that a great influx of settlers will take place in the immediate future.

The majority of the Winnipeg City Corps will unite for their annual picnic to be held at Winnipeg Beach. Thursday, July 22, is the date fixed for this interesting event.

Trail

The Commissioner and party left Nelson for Trail. The train bounded away through the winding mountainous country, with the peaks of those sleeping giants towering into the heavens with their snow-capped tops glittering in the golden sunshine. The scene was one of indescribable splendour—the green-covered slopes with the varied shades of color, interspersed here and there by small fruit farms with their strawberry groves and cherry-laden trees, the swift flowing river, the rushing cataracts, the mighty waterfalls—presenting to the eye of man beauty unexcelled and calling forth with silent admiration the words of the psalmist: "How mighty are thy works, O God." Words are inadequate in explaining such a sight of nature and God's handiwork. Suffice it to say it demonstrated on every hand the mighty God and creator of all things.

As the train slowed up at Trail, Commandant Greenblatt was on hand to welcome the party and convey them to the Quarters, where Captain Shorter was preparing a hearty repast. The hard work of these Officers did not pass unwarded.

In the meeting at night a fine crowd of intelligent people gathered to welcome our Leader, while His Worship Mayor Dockrill extended to the Commissioner a most hearty reception, and, needless to say, our Leader responded in his usual interesting manner and gained the earnest and eager attention of the listeners for over an hour with an earnest appeal such as the people of that town had not listened to for many a long day. ## Triumphant Visit to Victoria

(Latest by Wire)

VANCOUVER, B.C., July 13.—Victoria's welcome could not be excelled for spontaneity and sincerity. A full house greeted Commissioner and party. Senior and Junior Bands were well to front. Sunday morning's Holiness address commended itself to all as a very lucid and convincing exposition of the truth.

Nearly one thousand persons gathered in Pantages Theatre in the afternoon. It was the Orangemen's annual rally. Our Leader delivered a very inspiring spiritual address. County Master Pearce in very felicitous terms thanked the Commissioner for his splendid discourse, which was seconded by a standing vote. A large crowd assembled at night. It was a most impressive service. One soul surrendered.

Monday night meeting fitting climax to triumphant weekend. Our Leader's closing prayer will live long. There was a full program in which all sections of the Corps were represented. The Commissioner addressed over two thousand people during the week-end campaign.—Special Correspondent.

Rossland

The next morning the party moved on to the picturesque town of Rossland, which is nestled in the very heart of the mountains, and for scenery surpasses even that of Trail itself. The Officers, Captain Harkitt, and Lieutenant Grant were there to welcome our Leader, also His Worship Mayor Pitt, whose presence at the station caused no little stir among the townspeople, for many were there also to show their appreciation of the Army's work. The flags were flying, and a huge sign with the word "WELCOME" in blazing letters of The Army colors stretched across the entire road in honor of our Leader's visit. His Worship placed his auto at the Commissioner's disposal, and with another friend took the party for a short drive through that charming little town of scenic splendor.

Mayor Pitt presided over the service, which was conducted in the United Church. The Rev. Chester, together with other leading citizens and His Worship, extended a very cordial welcome to the Commissioner, and

Mayor Pitt presided over the service, which was conducted in the United Church. The Rev. Chester, together with other leading citizens and His Worship, extended a very cordial welcome to the Commissioner, and mentioned not only the work that The Army had accomplished and was accomplishing in this and other countries, but especially the work which God had assisted our organization to do during the past year.

It seemed that all there called upon to speak were Scotch, which of course found a cordial note in our Leader's heart, but caused Brigadier Phillips to exclaim: "I think it is about time the English had a chance," whereupon he expressed his pleasure in being present, etc.

Our Leader made the most of this opportunity of not only acquainting those present with the great object of The Army, but in most emphatic words presenting Christ and His great claims to them in a most charming and convincing manner. Although the hour was getting late the crowd stayed without a stir and apparently drank in those burning words of truth presented in such an able manner by our Leader.

The Officers here are to be congratulated upon the successful visit and the good crowd which was present to welcome the Commissioner.

Vancouver

Commissioner Sadle and staff copied their campaign in Vancouver with a conference with the Headquarters and City Officers at which the Commissioner poured out his soul and revealed a burning desire to accomplish something definite for the extension of God's Kingdom here in this city.

The first public gathering was a raising Musical Festival, held in the N. A. Stadium, when all the City Bands took part as well as the Songster Brigade, whose numbers on the program were very well rendered.

All day Sunday the Commissioner spent in Queen's Park, the Headquarters of the City. Our Leader demonstrated his deep earnest desire for the spiritual welfare of all concerned, by the very personal and practical application of scriptural truths to the every-day life of those present. God wonderfully upheld the Commissioner and revealed Himself marvelously through the illustrations used and permanent good cannot help but be the result. The first Bandmen's Council held here at the Coast. Brigadier Pearce gave splendid support to the Commissioner in conducting the preliminary parts of all these meetings.

The Commissioner has demonstrated to the Bandmen that he has a very definite knowledge of their difficulties, and that he is well able to enter into their trials and sympathies with them, and even to advise, admonish and instruct them. All will be better soldiers through having heard the Commissioner, (Continued on Page 8) and the Kingdom of God will be pushed forward with greater zeal henceforth, through an example displayed by our Leader.

Installation of New D.O.s

As evidenced by the large crowd waiting at the Citadel for the meeting to commence, Vancouver comrades were expecting a good time. From the first song lined out by Brigadier Phillips to the last of "Onward, Christian Soldiers," until the closing prayer, intense interest was maintained.

There were several representative speakers. Brigadier Phillips spoke on behalf of T.F.C., while Adjutant Veir and Ensign Freeman represented the Staff and Field men and women Officers. Commandant Mrs. Robb spoke for the Immigration and Social Departments. Captain Mundy ably represented the younger Officers. There was considerable enthusiasm when it was learned that Bandmaster W. Creighton of Calgary was present. He spoke very feelingly and brought the greetings of the Calgary Corps and Band.

The actual installation by the Commissioner was a call to higher service and a renewal of vows to all. One could not witness and take part without being deeply impressed with the solemnity of the occasion. We shall not soon forget the scenes when, at the request of our Leader, the audience arose and, with hands outstretched to the flag, sang, "Will We Sing to Thee?"

Brigadier and Mrs. Coombs in reply assured the Commissioner that the principles of the S.A. would be upheld by them, thus bringing to a close what perhaps was the most interesting meeting of its kind ever held in Vancouver.

Nanaimo

A very creditable crowd greeted our Leader at this very interesting place. It was a holiday, which interfered with the gathering; nevertheless much interest was shown. The Mayor, Mr. Interest was the essence of kindness, party to all the points of beauty and interest. His worship presided, and was supported by several other gentlemen.

The Commissioner spoke with freedom, and for upwards of an hour held the congregation, purchasing his address with a number of incidents which called forth much applause.

The meeting was much enjoyed by all. Brigadier Coombs made his welcome speech, and was well received by his audience. Captain Mundy, in addition to his vocal solo, gave an instrumental piece on the cornet.

The usual invitation for a week-end visit was extended to our Leader, which was in line with the general clamor for a return visit.

A Live Y.P. Corps

The Young People's Workers

The Brandon Y.P. Corps has good reason to thank God for His goodness towards them in connection with their work. Sergeant-Major R. Rankin writes: "Our Company Guards and leaders have their hearts and souls in the work, and what greater work could anyone be engaged in than trying to bring our Juniors into the knowledge of Truth and righteousness and instructing them in the way of Salvation. A Company Guard does not always see the results of his work immediately, and this may sometimes tend to discourage him; but there is no doubt in future years they will reap a rich harvest for their toil and sacrifice for the Juniors."

"We feel that this important, yet most important work," he continues, "does not get enough publicity, and is a source of encouragement for the Y.P. locals when their labors are recognized by the Senior Corps and in the War Cry and I venture to say that the Corps that furthers the interests of the Juniors will be strong and healthy in every respect. We are pleased to say that our new Officers, Adjutant and Mrs. Tuttle, are enthusiastic for Young People's Work."

"We would like to start out on some aggressive work. There are a great many boys and girls in Brandon who do not go to Sunday School, and we believe we could get them, but we have

The Soul's Weather

Feelings are like the weather on certain of our northern mountains. This weather changes. One day all is sunshine, the next all is gloom. One day the air is warm, and the fields are green with life, and the other day it is white and still as death. But strong wills are like the sturdy mountaineers, who work on through all kinds of weather, snowing and raining, working and waiting, always gaining. A strong will goes on through joy and pain, building up character, laying up a treasure that shall endure. Are you growing daily in the power of such a will?

Bandmaster H. G. Merrill and the Citadel Bandmen, who returned this week to Winnipeg, are filled with praises over the generous treatment accorded them everywhere they went on their tour. The Bandmaster has especially requested that we express warm thanks to the members of the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs and other citizens who so kindly placed cars at the disposal of the Band and thus enabled them to visit so many hospitals, goals and other institutions.

The Secret of a Happy Day

Just let thy Father da
What He will;
Just to know that He is true,
And be still;
Just to follow hour by hour
His leadings;
Just to draw the moment's power
As it needs;
Just to trust Him, this is all!
Then this day will surely be
Peaceful, whatever befall,
Bright and blessed, calm and free.

Just to ask Him what to do
All the day,
And to make you quick and true
To obey.
Just to know the needed grace
His leadings;
Every bar of time and place
Overcoming;
Just to take thy orders straight
From the Master's own command
One day when thus we wait

One Sure Remedy for Crime

The suggested cause of the increase in crime and the remedies for dealing with it are many and varied. While one leading newspaper publishes a picture of the cat-o'-nine-tails with the title of "The House of Correction," another suggests the immediate abolition of the "crime wave." Some accept the "crime wave" as a natural evil to be borne with patience while others find the authorities are to blame and call for the closing up of our vigilance bodies.

One of these causes or remedies may be the natural evil to be borne with patience while others find the authorities are to blame and call for the closing up of our vigilance bodies. The increase in crime is an increase of deliberate sin and the indication of a national disregard for the laws of God. The only remedy for all this is the power of God in the heart. The Salvation Army has proved, not once, but many times, that the so-called "professional" criminal community is as responsive to spiritual influences as any section of the nation, provided that the hearts are inclined to get at the hearts of these abnormally-minded individuals.

Four of the whip and prison-cell may suppress crime, but only the cleansing blood of Jesus Christ can remove the desire for lawlessness.

It is the joy of the Salvationist to combat the increase of evil by unflinching efforts in the publication of the "Word of Salvation." A greater reward for God and His laws displayed by the ordinary citizen would be to have the "Word of Salvation" counteracted the degraded standards for general public towards eternal things. The conversion of the criminal—a thing which the Salvation Army has proved possible—would turn these troublesome souls into law-abiding citizens, proud to themselves and to the state as a whole.

Kindness is the sweet way to the heart.

Take what you trust what may be:
That's life's lesson—B. Browning.

A Profitable Investment

Persons who desire to help The Army will obtain the fullest benefits about the work of any branch in which they are specially interested, by assisting in the fund-raising efforts of the Commissioner William Steele, Salvation Army, 117 Carlton, Winnipeg, Man.

Some may not be able to give as much as they would like, but yet, without doing an injustice to anybody, remember the work of the Salvation Army is a great work, and it is a great pleasure to see the work of the Salvation Army as well as to be larger amount. All will be gratefully received and applied to complete.

Brandon's Splendid Band

Pride of the Wheat City

Under the baton of Bandmaster George Weir the Brandon Band's progress has been truly phenomenal, and despite all the disadvantages that the war period brought to the Band, when so many of its members went across the seas in the service of their King, it has risen up from its ashes to far excel its former self. Undoubtedly much of the advance made has been due to the exceptional leadership of the present Bandmaster, George Weir, a son of Adjutant and Mrs. Weir of Vancouver, B.C.

Bandmaster Weir, who is still a very young man, was converted on April 8, 1912, and although only a boy at 18 years, God spoke to his young heart and a real experience was the result. In August of the following year he followed the best of his character, which led him to the Band. The duties of Adjutant and Mrs. Weir to Brandon, in December of 1914, bringing George with them, and the beginning of a great era for him and for the Band, for the following June he was asked to form the renowned Boys' Band, which he showed great talent in whipping into shape in a remarkably short time. When most of the other men left for overseas he became the sole service Bandmaster.

The Brandon Boys' Band did yeoman service during the war—on one occasion taking a trip extending over two weeks and earning pocket labels everywhere they went for their splendid playing and good behavior. Under the leadership of Bandmaster George Weir, the Boys' Band continued along in the right direction, gradually gaining in musical efficiency until the fall of 1915, when, through several favourable for the Training College, including the leader, and others enlisting in the C.E.F., the Brigade was left minus many of its most capable singers. The few that remained continued for some time, under Bandmaster George Weir, to render service to the Corps and for God, but under the circumstances were forced to break up.

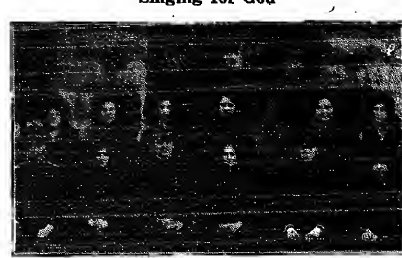

For about two years there was nothing done in Brigade Singing, but in January, 1918, Ensign Bourne decided to try again, with the appointment of a new Songster Leader in the person of Bandmaster R. Watt. The Brigade has carried on ever since with considerable results.

Singing for God

The Songster Brigade

In 1912, during the term of the command of Adjutant Magee and Captain McMillan, the first Songster Brigade of the Brandon Corps was formed, under the leadership of Bandmaster (now Captain) Fred Mundy. The first practice was called, and the new Brigade, consisting of some fourteen voices, started its career with a single subject to sing to the Glory of God and the salvation of sinners.

Under his capable leadership, also that of his brother (now Captain) George Mundy, the Brigade continued along in the right direction, gradually gaining in musical efficiency until the fall of 1915, when, through several favourable for the Training College, including the leader, and others enlisting in the C.E.F., the Brigade was left minus many of its most capable singers.

The few that remained continued for some time, under Bandmaster George Weir, to render service to the Corps and for God, but under the circumstances were forced to break up.

For about two years there was nothing done in Brigade Singing, but in January, 1918, Ensign Bourne decided to try again, with the appointment of a new Songster Leader in the person of Bandmaster R. Watt. The Brigade has carried on ever since with considerable results.

What a Corps Cadet Ought to Be

First of all, spiritual, with an ever-present consciousness of the spirit of God dwelling in the heart. Not trifling and light in manner, but sober and earnest, filled with real for God and His cause, always remembering the great purpose of your Corps Cadetship and all that is expected of you as such.

While we do not wish you never to smile or have a good, hearty laugh, or vomit on occasion, yet we do desire the tendency to ally, giddy chatter and lightness which are all too prevalent among some young people. A Corps Cadet is in training for future service, and the main business of a Salvationist is to get souls saved—not merely to have a good time with comrades and friends in the barracks. Let every energy, then, of mind and heart be bent on preparing yourself for the service, and thus you will have the God-given privilege that may be yours some day, if you are good and true, and make the most of your chances as the days go by.

An Example

"Leaving us an example that we should follow His steps." As we have the life of Christ to take pattern from, so should our fellow-workers and comrades see that in us which they can copy. Can we say to those about us, "Follow me as I follow Christ?"

There are many ways in which a Corps Cadet can be an example, among which are the following: Be in time at the open-air. Always be ready with your testimony, prayer or song, when opportunity offers. When asked to take part in any special effort, be willing to do your best. Be a worker, not a dreamer. Let your life be an example of godliness, earnestness and zeal, so you will be a source of comfort to your Officers and be preparing yourself for your future as a leader and guide to others.

Do not disappoint those who are looking to you and expecting great things of you, but wholeheartedly go in to win your best for Jesus Christ and His Kingdom.

The Brightest Jewels

A Canadian lady, who was very rich and fond of pomp and show, being on a visit to Corrie, the illustrious mother of the Graceli, displayed the diamonds and jewels she possessed, with some sentimentation, and then requested Corrie to permit her to see her jewels. This eminent woman (demeanor) contrived to turn the conversation to another subject until her some returned from one of the public sessions, when she introduced them, saying, "These are my jewels."

When the band filed onto the platform and received a great ovation, the Festival got off to a good start under the able chairmanship of Commandant Bristow of Edmonton, a very firm friend of the Citadel Bandmen. Every item was well received and rolled as a soldier of the Corps. Another young man after leaving the gael told his parents how helpful the meetings had been to him and to the other men who were in the gael, and when the father met Sergeant McCormick he thanked him for the interest taken in his son and others who were placed under the same circumstances, and promised help at any time needed for the same.

When we say that the treatment reserved at the hands of the Calgary Omradas exceeded all expectations, we are putting it mildly. Much of the success of the campaign no doubt is due to the efforts of the C.O., Adjutant James Merritt, and special mention might also be made of Brother Holland, who sold $84 worth of tickets for the Monday night Festival.

COMING EVENTS

WEYBURN, Sask.—During the last two weeks our Officers have been away on furlough and our meetings have been led by Recruiting Sergeant Brother Biggs and Sergt.-Major Mrs. Magee, and wonderful times we have had.

Our little Band at Weyburn is doing fine and has been the subject of much comment by the people of the town, who are quite pleased at the way it is improving. Last Sunday we played for the No. 3 Book. The "Love Selection" was rendered and it was a great credit to Bandmaster Andrews.

Ensign and Mrs. Edwards, the missionaries from India, visited our Corps last Friday, and their visit will be a long-to-be-remembered event in our Corps. The Hindu attire they wore drew a large crowd of listeners at the open-air. They attempted to teach those standing around a Hindu chorus, but with difficulty. The inside meet-

The Officers and tea comrades motored to the little town of Young, about 18 miles, last Tuesday night and we had our first meeting there.

On Thursday of this week our Divisional Office was here and conducted our first enrolment of soldiers. Twelve juniors and seven seniors were enrolled under the blessed Blood and Fire Banner.—C. Roy Heinrichs, Corps Correspondent.

VANCOUVER CITADEL BAND.—The Vancouver Citadel Bandsmen, together with their families and friends, spent a very enjoyable day on the occasion of their annual picnic, which was held at Central Park, Burnaby B.C. The program consisted of two short meals in the Band, and the balance of the time was spent in enjoyable recreation and games. Many prizes were awarded to the winners by Adjutant George Weir. Great credit is due to the comrades for their hard work to make the outing such a success.

We have lately welcomed Bandsmen Cole and Towns of Edmonton, Bandsmen G. and J. of Regina, and Bandsmen Lum and the latter brought his wife.

Urgently Wanted

We are in need of copies of the Young Soldier for Jan. 10 and Feb. 21, 1929; also the following issues of the War Cry: All issues of July and August, 1919; Sept. 6, 13, 20, 1919 and Oct. 11 and 18, 1919.

We shall be grateful to anyone who may have these and can send them in, addressed The Chief Secretary, 317 Carlton St., Winnipeg, Man.
